2) How to Enter: Log on to <https://www.bio.org/events/bio-international-convention/buzz-bio> and submit an entry to describe your project, telling us how your technology, business or idea can impact the biotechnology community. When you're satisfied with what you've written, just submit and you'll be automatically entered in the Contest for a chance to win one of the two Grand Prizes of one (1) individual registration and a Company Presentation (up to $5,150 in value). Contest registration is open between 9:00:00 AM Eastern Time (ET) on February 24, 2020 and ends at 5:00:00 PM ET on February 28, 2020, or until 20 qualifying nominations in each category have been received (whichever occurs first).

Entries must be complete to be eligible. Entries become the property of BIO, and will not be returned. Any form of entry by electronic message into this Contest will be deemed made by the named account holder (for the form of electronic submission) who is assigned at the time of entry to the electronic device so used. Limit of one entry per company for this Contest, regardless of method of entry.

All complete and appropriate entries will be considered for judgment for the Grand Prizes. The Sponsor, any Internet access providers, their respective parents, affiliates, divisions, and agencies and each of the foregoing entities' respective employees, officers, directors, shareholders, and agents (the "Released Parties") are not responsible for incorrect or inaccurate transfer of entry information, human error, technical malfunctions, lost/delayed data transmissions, omission, interruption, deletion, defect, line failures of any telephone network, computer equipment, software or any combination thereof, inability to access web site or cell number, damage to a user's computer system (hardware and software) due to participation in this Contest or any other problem or error that may occur. No responsibility is assumed for entrant information that is incomplete or incorrectly entered. All entries become the property of the Sponsor.

Any entry information collected from the Contest shall be used only in a manner consistent with the consent given by entrants at the time of entry, with these Official Rules, and with Sponsor's Online Privacy Policy which can be found at <https://www.bio.org/privacy-policy>. Participants who submit inaccurate entry data and/or exceed the entry limits may be excluded from participation at any time during the promotion. Entrants agree to be bound by these rules and consent to use of their names and/or photographs for advertising and/or publicity purposes by Sponsor and its designees in any and all media without further consideration, except where prohibited by law.

3) Categories and Voting for the Grand Prizes: The two Contest categories are Pipelines of Promise and Technologies of Tomorrow (collectively the "categories"). Qualifying companies for Pipelines of Promise are biotechnology-focused companies that have at least started some human trials. Qualifying companies for Technologies of Tomorrow are biotechnology-focused companies that have not yet begun human trials or will not begin human trials. For each category, companies must be headquartered in the U.S.

The first 20 completed entries in each category received between 9:00:00 AM ET on February 24, 2020 and 5:00:00 PM ET on February 28, 2020 will become contest finalists and thus eligible for one of the two Grand Prizes being given away. The Organizer is the official timekeeper for this Contest.

Each Contest entrant that becomes a finalist will be displayed with a "vote" button on the website. Users shall vote for the entries that they feel best meet the criteria set forth below. The entries (i.e., one entry from each Category) that have gained the highest number of votes at the conclusion of the community voting period will be the Grand Prize winners. The community voting period begins at 9:00:00 AM ET on March 17, 2020 and ends at 5:00:00 PM ET on March 19, 2020. Only one vote per unique email address will be accepted and recorded.

The following criteria, weighed equally, should be taken into consideration by Users when voting: Innovative Technology, Quality of Presentation and Strength of Ideas.

Submissions can be disqualified if the submission either subjects the submitter, BIO, BIO's members, or the BIO International Convention to legal jeopardy or compromises BIO's or BIO's members' good will and/or reputation, intellectual property or trade secret interests. This includes words or imagery that are sexually charged or suggestive, that depict acts of violence or cruelty, that attack or disparage or present in a false light any individual or group of people, that are otherwise vile, nasty or otherwise uncivil, that makes false performance claims about BIO, BIO members, or the BIO CEO & Investor Conference, or that use the likeness, words, or other intellectual property of a third party or celebrity (for example, a movie star, rock star, or company) without appropriate permission to do so. Decisions of the Sponsor are final - no substitutions will be available.

4) Grand Prize Notification. Each of the winners of the two Grand Prizes will be notified on or about March 24, 2020, by email, or telephone or regular mail. If contacted by telephone or regular mail, potential winners who entered via electronic message methods will be required to provide phone number and mailing address information (e.g., full name, phone number, street address, city, state, and ZIP) in order to receive any necessary prize documents and/or to receive any prize. By accepting any prize, winner grants BIO the right to use his/her entry, name, likeness and biographical information in any and all media for advertising/promotional purposes. Entrants also agree to the release of their name, address, and e-mail information for posting and winner notification purposes. Otherwise, please review this site's privacy policy for more information on how we use any personal data we collect from you.

The judging and selection of each potential Grand Prize winner will be conducted from among all eligible entries received as outlined in Rule #3 above. The Contest will be conducted by BIO, and their decisions are final and binding on all matters relating to this Contest. Potential winners are subject to eligibility verification and compliance with these official rules. Each potential Grand Prize winner will be required to sign and return to BIO an affidavit of eligibility/release of liability, and, where legal, publicity release within fourteen (14) days of issuance of notification. Failure to complete and return the documents in the time noted or if prize notification is undeliverable for any reason will result in disqualification and an alternate winner(s) will be selected and notified. Each Grand Prize winner must be 21 years of age or older at time of entry. Acceptance of the prize constitutes permission for the Sponsor and its designees to use the winner's name and likeness for advertising and promotional purposes without additional compensation unless prohibited by law. Odds of winning a prize are subject to the total number of eligible entries received.

5) Prizes: Two (2) Grand Prize winners will each receive one of the two Grand Prizes of one (1) individual BIO Business Forum registration and a Company Presentation (up to $5,150 in value).
